Christmas is over and the new year is just about upon us. Gable House is busily preparing for the lady league party which is being given on Sunday afternoon, January 14.

BIG DAY SOON

Gals have been chosen from the various leagues to either model in the fashion show or to act as hostesses.

Homel is going all out to extend his thanks for the many ladies who returned to Gable and joined leagues. He promised a good party and that's what you gals are going to get.

Here's the latest scoop on the program. There will be a hair style fashion show by Ramon who is located on Hawthorne Blvd. in Torrance, free luncheon, clothes fashion show by Cherie Hand Knit Creations and the Mona Gail Shop, Judy Lee will display her line of jewelry, and many fabulous door prizes will be given away.

The grand door prize is the overnight trip to Las Vegas for two which includes the flight up and back, champagne, and dinner. This prize is being given by the Space Age Travel Service on Hawthorne Blvd. in Torrance.

Other gifts will include several hair cuts and sets and a few other surprises.

The party will probably last a couple or three hours Sunday afternoon, so figure on staying from about 2 to 5 p.m. Get together with your team mates and league members and have yourself a good time.

This will be your day—free—and lots of fun, so try not to miss it. I haven't heard of any other houses having parties for their lady league bowlers, have you?

HIGH PINNERS

Heading the list of high pinners is Steve Thomas with a smashing 266 game. Next is Victor Prinz with a hot 262. Not to exclude a junior pinner, Dennis Martin, shot a high 245. Two other juniors, Tom Meyer and Al Sollars, each rolled a 241. Next, are Lee Gladdin, 219 and Lloyd Mobley, 211 and a 4-7-10 conversion.

Lady pinners include Dot Elliott, 211; Bonnie Alderman, 207; Helen Harter, Hilltoppers, 202; Gloria Wheeler, Gable Owls, 201; Bev Gunderson, Sunsetters, 200; Mil Marvin, Bowling Bags No. Two, 200; J. Walker, G.A.A. Intermediate, 125 triplicate; Lena A. Blank, St. Lawrence Ladies, 6-7-10; and Jean Bradley, Tuesday-Toots, 6-7-10.

A quick reminder to all GHBA members—don't forget to get your tickets early to the New Years Eve party which is to be held at Gable House. A grand time is being planned, so plan to attend.

FINAL G. W. WINNERS

Gable House had its final roll-off last weekend for the Great Western Singles Handicap Tournament.

The final ten bowlers in the two divisions and their total scores include the following:

"A" division — D. Johnson, 675; M. McCarty, 656; K. McKenzie, 652; V. Priintz, 644; R. Dorazio, 639; J. Collett, 631; T. Garneal, 625; K. Purser, 620; N. Belt, 620; and L. Boyd, 617.

"B" division — W. Overseth, 730; G. A. Hamel, 684; M. Jones, 683; L. Balsler, 657; R. Clements, 648; B. Alderman, 648; J. Etcheverry, 641; B. Karant, 638; R. Lamplugh, 631; G. A. Breyer, 625; and R. Moore, 625.

Only five Gable House bowlers from each division will go to Las Vegas, however, there will be ten winners there from each division making a total of twenty bowlers dividing cash awards. Each winner should take home about $500 in cash. Not bad for a days work.

NEW DRIVER?—Hardly, but pretty Cathy McGivney of Pasadena gets "inside" dope on racing from Parnelli Jones, Indianapolis rookie of the year, who will drive J. C. Agajanian's Willard Battery Special in year's final USAC national championship midget race Sunday afternoon at Ascot Park. It is first midget to be sponsored by Agajanian, who long has been an Indianapolis car owner.

Green Bay Dominates Western Pro-Bowl

Champion Green Bay, as expected, dominated the Western Conference squad named today for the 12th annual NFL All-Star Pro Bowl Game Jan. 14 at the Los Angeles Coliseum, placing eight players on the 32-man roster.

A veteran team was selected by the seven coaches to represent the defending champions against the Eastern Conference in the traditional charity classic. Named were 27 repeaters, totaling 99 Pro Bowl appearances. None of the five first-time Pro Bowlers is a rookie.

Three members of the Los Angeles Rams made the elite outfit — halfback Jon Arnett, who will make his fifth consecutive appearance; linebacker Les Richter, selected for the eighth straight time, and end Jim Phillips, a second-year choice.

The Packers will be led by their star fullback, Jim Taylor, who set a Pro Bowl record last January by scoring three touchdowns as the West won an exciting match, 35-31.

The offensive backfield for the West is virtually intact from the 1961 game — quarterback Johnny Unitas of the Colts, the 1960 and '61 player of the game, Taylor, Arnett, Lion fullback Nick Pietrosanti, Packer quarterback Bart Starr and Colt halfback Lenny Moore, plus McElhenny.

Noticeably absent, of course, is halfback Paul Hornung who undoubtedly would have been a Packer selection again but for Army duty.

A rookie who was high in the voting, end Mike Ditka of the Bears, misses the roster due to a knee injury.

The Iron Man of the West will be 37-year-old Leo Nomellini (49ers), defensive tackle who will be making his 10th showing, missing only the 1955-1956 games since the Pro Bowl was inaugurated in 1951.

Newcomers, on the other hand, are guard Ted Conolly and defensive back Eddie Dove of the 49ers, end Max McGee and defensive back Jess Whittenton of the Packers and 37-year-old Lion-kicker Jim Martin.

Detroit rivaled Green Bay by placing seven players on the squad. One more player, the bonus choice of the head coach, will be named later.

Final Ascot Park Event Scheduled For Next Weekend

Another Indianapolis-favored auto racing field is taking shape for the year's final United States Auto Club championship event, a 40-lap midget race at Ascot Park, Gardena, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 31.

In addition to the national champion, Jimmy Davies of Monticello, Indiana, a former Indy driver, the lineup will include such popular drivers from the speedway as Shorty Templeman of Seattle (fourth in 1961), Roger McCluskey, Jim Hurtubise, Parnelli Jones and Elmer George, among others.

George has entered, according to racing director J. C. Agajanian, as part of a powerful Bowes Seal Fast two-car entry filed by Jack London of Oakland. He'll team with well known local star Billy Cantrell of Anaheim. Cantrell, incidentally, has switched to a new mount, the famed Bowes No. five which has failed to finish only one race in two years, winning all other starts.

The regular USAC driving contingent will face several serious threats in the form of Western drivers. Among them are Allen Heath, the one-armed driver from Northridge; Carl Williams, Bobby Hogle and Dee Jones. The latter hails from Phoenix and surprised local race followers last month when he finished second behind Hurtubise in a USAC sprint car race at Ascot.

Entries of Hurtubise, the 1960 Indianapolis rookie of the year, and Jones, 1961 Speedway rookie star, were announced by racing director J. C. Agajanian.

Hurtubise, who holds the Indianapolis speed record of 149 mph-plus, and Jones, the national sprint car champion, are two of several Indianapolis-experienced drivers set to run in the 1961 finale.

The seven-race card will get underway at 2:30 p.m.

Dick Jensen, who's also been hot lately, has high game for the team, a 287. Nagy leads in bonus points with 107.

Glinski leads the club in average with 210, high series with 520 — he also has a 514 to his credit — and in all-important match points with 41. He's tied with Steve Nagy for total points with 141.
